

In Honor of Olympia's 150th Birthday, the City of Olympia, Olympia Historical Society and Olympia Heritage Commission present

Unseemly Olympia: Regrettable Chapters in the History of Washington's Capital City

The pioneers were people, and murder, greed, intolerance and lust weren't invented in the 20th Century. Join us for an exploration of some Olympia's less-than-illustrious moments and take a peek under the rug where local boosters swept our more embarrassing moments.

with Local Historian

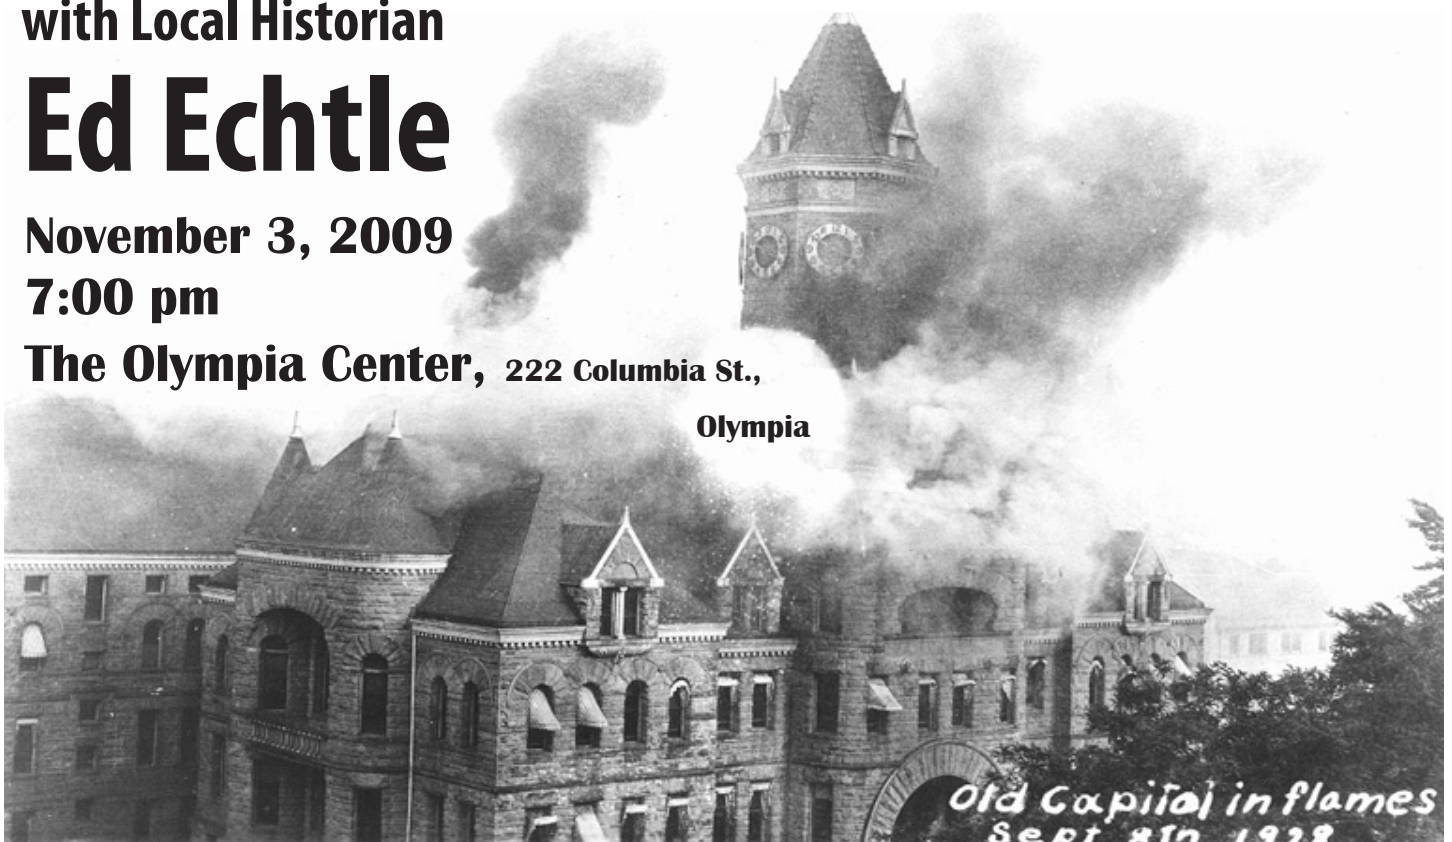

Ed Echtle

November 3, 2009

7:00 pm

The Olympia Center, 222 Columbia St.,

Olympia

The City of Olympia is celebrating its 150th birthday with events throughout the entire year. For a complete calendar of events, see our web site: www.olympiawa.gov and click on Events/150th Birthday.

The City of Olympia is committed to the non-discriminatory treatment of all persons in employment and the delivery of goods and services.